

Equality

The College will comply with all statutory duties in respect of The Equality Act 2010 and its Protected Characteristics: age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership and pregnancy and maternity. The college will work within the terms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the Human Rights Act 1998 and any subsequent enactments or modifications.

Equality Impact Assessments will be carried out at the drafting stage for new policies and where existing policies are reviewed and updated.

Sustainability

The college will comply with all statutory duties in respect of sustainable development by seeking to improve the long-term economic, social and environmental wellbeing of people and communities. This needs to be done in ways which promote social justice, equality of opportunity and which enhance the natural and cultural environment while respecting its limits.

Welsh Language

The College will comply with its Welsh Language Scheme, which is a statutory document, in all of its activities. This includes conducting Welsh Language Impact Assessments for all new and revised policies and initiatives. A copy of this policy is also available in the medium of Welsh.

Our commitment to being a Trauma Informed Organisation

The College is committed to transforming into a trauma-informed institution where safety, collaboration, choice, trust and empowerment are central to our culture and practices, ensuring the wellbeing and resilience of all learners and staff. We prioritise the wellbeing of all, fostering positive relationships and experiences which develop and uphold the resilience of learners and staff.

Our commitment to becoming an Antiracist Organisation

Our approach will tackle racism on many levels. We will engage all members of our College community to support transformational change.

We are determined to tackle racial discrimination in all its forms and will be referring to the Race Relations Act 1976 and to achieve the actions set out in the Black Further Education Leadership Group (BFELG) 10 Point Plan.

We are committed to making sure that our College is inclusive. We want the experience of studying and working here to be positive and welcoming for everyone, of all ethnic and racial backgrounds. We understand that this is the responsibility of all of us and we expect everyone to play an active part.

College Merthyr Tydfil Privacy notice

1. Introduction

The learning programme you are about to apply for is provided by The College Merthyr Tydfil. Taking part in this learning programme is dependent on you completing an application form and providing personal data.

2. Why do we need your personal data?

The College Merthyr Tydfil uses information from our interactions with you and other learners as well as certain third parties e.g. your past secondary schools, Careers Wales, to help achieve our goal of providing you with the best learning experience possible.

The College Merthyr Tydfil respects the privacy rights of all of our learners and recognises the importance of protecting the information collected about you. To this end, we have established procedures that ensure your personal data is processed in a responsible, fair and transparent manner.

This privacy policy informs you about the data we collect and how; the purposes for which we collect and use it; your rights about and options concerning our use of your data; how your data is processed and with whom it may be shared; and for how long we store your information etc.

Please read it carefully.

DEFINITIONS:

The definition of personal data means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. An identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

When we use the term 'processing,' we mean any operation or set of operations performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

3. Who controls the data?

The College Merthyr Tydfil will be the data controller for the personal information it receives. The College address is:

The College Merthyr Tydfil
College Boulevard
Merthyr Tydfil
CF48 1AR

The College Merthyr Tydfil will use your data to ensure the effective administration and monitoring of the learning programme (s) you are applying for.

If you are applying from within the UK, you will also be asked to supply a copy of your qualification certificates and references.

If you are applying from outside the UK, you will also be asked to supply additional evidence such as a passport and recent payslip. A copy of this evidence will be retained by the college.

Data Sharing Agreements

The College Merthyr Tydfil has a formal data sharing agreement in place whenever we share your data with a third party. Part of the agreement means the third party will have to sign a confidentiality agreement in relation to your data to show that they operate satisfactory information security procedures and that destroy their copies of your data when it's no longer needed. They can only use your data for the reason they sign up to and nothing else. All copies of data transfers are logged and recorded. The College Merthyr Tydfil currently has a Data Disclosure Agreement in place with Merthyr Tydfil County Borough Council and the four Merthyr Tydfil Secondary Schools – Afon Taf, Cyfarthfa, Bishop Hedley and Penydre.

Security Arrangements for your data held by The College Merthyr Tydfil

The data The College Merthyr Tydfil collects about you will be stored in an access controlled secure database which is regularly tested for safety and integrity

Your data will also be linked for reporting purposes to other educational records held by your past secondary school, the Welsh Government such as the Pupil Level Annual Schools Census, the Welsh Examinations Database and Higher Education Statistics Authority, and to other records held by UK Government such as employment data, so that the Welsh Government can calculate learner destinations measures and also understand the impact of post-16 provision on wider outcome.

Any statistics published by the Welsh Government are anonymised, meaning that individual learners cannot be identified

7. Your rights and choices

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) you have the right to:

- Access the personal data The College Merthyr Tydfil holds on you
- Require The College Merthyr Tydfil to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- Object to processing on grounds relating to your particular situation (in some circumstances)
- Restrict processing (in some circumstances)
- Have your data erased (in certain circumstances)
- Lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's office (ICO) who is the independent regulator for data protection
